Subject: Corrosion Control Program

John,

Thank you for the MSDS sheets and the Boeing specification sheets you provided on the product ACF-50. Our Material and Process engineering group has reviewed that data, and has determined that ACF-50 is a suitable corrosion control product. This product is approved under our existing Cessna specifications. If you have any further question, please do not hesitate to ask. Thank you for your patience.

Best regards,

Matt Carr – Structures Engineer
